

Flaster Greenberg Sponsors the CCBA's 5th Annual Lobster Bake

Press Release

December 2, 2014

Cherry Hill, NJ

On Saturday, September 27, 2014, Flaster Greenberg was a proud sponsor of the Camden County Bar Association's 5th Annual Lobster Bake, which took place at the TapRoom in Westmont, New Jersey. Over $10,000 was raised at this event to benefit the Young Lawyer LARC School Scholarship Fund administered through the Camden County Bar Foundation.

LARC is a non-profit special education school serving disabled individuals ranging from ages 3 to 21. They strive to meet the needs of all students and young adults with varying disabilities in a dignified manner by providing opportunities for growth, development and most important, independence.

Pictured above are the members of the planning committee, Flaster Greenberg employees and special guests. (L-R): Krista Egan, Molly O'Leary, Lynda Calderone, Ralph Calderone, Pete Tomasco, Alison Tomasco, Rachel Licausi, Lee Epstein, Emily Epstein, Jordan LaVine, Alexis Arena, Christa Gersh, and Adam Gersh.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Lee Epstein

Adam Gersh

Jordan LaVine