

Flaster Greenberg Employees Donate to Operation Bear Hug

Press Release

December 29, 2014

Cherry Hill, NJ

On Wednesday, December 24, 2014, Flaster Greenberg employees donated over 75 teddy bears to Operation Bear Hug, a Ministry of the Haddonfield United Methodist Church Youth Group that collects new stuffed bears and then personally delivers them on Christmas Eve to every individual who is in the local hospitals, including the Emergency Rooms.

Haddonfield United Methodist Church has been running Operation Bear Hug since 1997. This year, the program collected over 950 bears and recruited 80 volunteers to deliver bears to patients in five local hospitals.
