

Flaster Greenberg to Sponsor the CCBA's 6th Annual Lobster Bake

Press Release

May 15, 2015
Cherry Hill, NJ

Flaster Greenberg will be the presenting sponsor for the Camden County Bar Association's 6th annual Lobster Bake. The event will take place on Saturday, September 19, 2015 from 4 p.m. – 8 p.m. at the TapRoom in Westmont, New Jersey.

A portion of the net proceeds will benefit the Young Lawyer Larc School Scholarship Fund, a nonprofit special education school serving students with a wide range of moderate to severe disabilities, which is administered through the Camden County Bar Foundation.

LARC is a non-profit special education school serving disabled individuals ranging from ages 3 to 21. They strive to meet the needs of all students and young adults with varying disabilities in a dignified manner by providing opportunities for growth, development and most important, independence.
