

FG to Sponsor the RACE FOR PREVENTION: 5K to Remember Jessica Miller

Press Release

August 10, 2015

Cherry Hill, NJ

Flaster Greenberg will be the platinum sponsor for the Prevent Child Abuse-New Jersey RACE FOR PREVENTION: 5K to Remember Jessica Miller. The race, USA-TF certified, honors the memory of Jessica Miller, a 10 year old from Bellmawr, New Jersey who died from injuries inflicted by her stepfather.

The race will take place on Saturday, September 19th at 9:00 a.m. at Road Runner Sports, 9210 Haddonfield Rd. in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Funds raised from the 5K will go directly to the prevention programs of PCA-NJ that are in all 21 counties throughout the state and ensure that the children in New Jersey have happy, healthy and safe childhoods.

PCA-NJ is a nonprofit organization working to end child abuse. For more than 30 years, they have implemented a broad range of prevention services that now operate in all 21 counties of the state.

For more information, or to register, click here.