

Michael Homans Presents at the National Business Institute's New Jersey Employment Law Summit

Press Release

April 14, 2017

Michael D. Homans, chair of Litigation, Labor and Employment, at Flaster Greenberg PC in Philadelphia, recently presented as a panelist on state and local wage and hour laws at the National Business Institute's New Jersey Employment Law Summit held in Atlantic City, NJ April 6th and in Cherry Hill, NJ, on April 11th. The session, for business leaders and lawyers practicing in other areas, covered state-specific rules and practice tips on wage payment, overtime, minimum wage, recordkeeping and other wage and hour issues, focusing primarily on New Jersey law.

For more employment law updates, including news and links to important information pertaining to legal developments that may affect your business, subscribe to Michael's blog, or follow him on Twitter @EmployLawUpdate.