Cherry Hill, NJ

Jeff Cohen, shareholder at Flaster Greenberg PC, was selected by the Association of Corporate Counsel – Greater Philadelphia Chapter to participate as a panelist with other in-house counsel at the 9th Annual ACC Greater Philadelphia in-House Counsel Conference, which took place on Thursday, April 27th in Philadelphia.

The panel discussion, entitled “Preventing Disputes and Litigation by Informed Drafting and Negotiation,” reviewed best practice for companies to implement when avoiding business arrangement and contract disputes.

Mr. Cohen counsels clients in complex litigation disputes and provides guidance to proactively address business formation and transaction issues. He has spent over 23 years helping clients anticipate, address and resolve the day-to-day challenges and pragmatic decisions facing today’s businesses. A trial lawyer by trait, Mr. Cohen works with businesses to ensure partnerships are intact as well as to identify potential risks and pitfalls associated with its evolution. He collaborates with a diverse range of clients in matters related to commercial contracts, shareholder and partnership agreements, trademarks, copyrights, patents, including Hatch-Waxman, insurance coverage, franchise disputes and commercial construction.
