FLASTER GREENBERG
Attorneys at Law | A Professional Corporation

David Neufeld Appointed to Joint Editorial Board of the Uniform Laws Commission for Trust & Estate Acts

August 27, 2019
Cherry Hill

David S. Neufeld, an attorney and shareholder in Flaster Greenberg PCs Boca Raton, FL and Cherry Hill, NJ offices, was recently appointed to the Joint Editorial Board of the Uniform Laws Commission for Trust & Estate Acts (JEB-UTEA) by the American Bar Association Section of Real Property Trust & Estate Law (ABA-RPTE). The board is composed of 24 members, including those appointed by the ULC, ABA-RPTE and the American College of Trust & Estate Counsel, and monitors legal developments in trust and estate law and recommends new uniform acts or amendments to existing acts.

It is an overwhelming honor to be able to participate with some of the best legal minds in the development of laws that will resound for generations, Neufeld said when notified of the appointment.

Neufeld has practiced law for more than 30 years, advising individuals and businesses around the globe and foreign governments on sophisticated planning for income tax, estate tax, state residency tax, asset protection and insurance and investment planning. He is past chair of the Insurance & Financial Planning Committee of ABA-RPTE among other leadership positions within the ABA.

The Uniform Law Commission (ULC, also known as the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws), established in 1892, provides states with non-partisan, well-conceived and well-drafted legislation that brings clarity and stability to critical areas of state statutory law. It is a state-supported organization, comprised of commissioners from each state, D.C., Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

David Neufeld