Press Release

November 20, 2019
Cherry Hill, NJ

Flaster Greenberg PC, a full-service commercial business law firm, is pleased to announce the election of Courtney Dolaway, Angie Gambone, Lauren Schwimmer and Damien Tancredi to shareholders effective January 1, 2020.

"Each of our newest shareholders has demonstrated outstanding leadership, exceptional knowledge and talent in his or her particular areas of law, and a firm commitment to providing excellent client service," said Alan Zuckerman, Flaster Greenberg's Managing Shareholder. "We are pleased to promote such a talented group of attorneys this year and are confident they will play an integral role in shaping the future of our firm's culture. We happily recognize the entire group as the next generation of future leaders of our firm."

Courtney E. Dolaway is a member of Flaster Greenberg's Trusts & Estates, Taxation, and Business & Corporate Departments representing individuals and business owners in their estate plans and corporate planning. She concentrates her practice on estate planning, estate administration, business succession, and general corporate matters. In addition to her shareholder election, she has recently been named chair of the firm's Women's Initiative.

Licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, along with the United States District Courts for the District of New Jersey and the Eastern and Middle Districts of Pennsylvania, Ms. Dolaway received her J.D. and LL.M. with a focus on estate planning from Villanova University Charles Widger Law School. Most recently, she was named a Pennsylvania "Rising Star" in the areas of Estate Planning & Probate by Pennsylvania Super Lawyers magazine and an "Awesome Attorney" in Trusts & Estates Law by South Jersey Magazine. Ms. Dolaway resides in the firm's Philadelphia office.

As a member of the firm's Family Law Department, Angie Gambone concentrates her practice in the areas of complex family law, divorce and custody matters. She also focuses her practice on adoption, family formation and the family law needs of nontraditional and LGBT families. Additionally, she is a member of Flaster Greenberg's general litigation practice group, available to represent business entities and individuals in a wide range of commercial matters. She is active in the firm's Diversity Committee, and is a trustee for the LGBT Rights Section of NJSBA.
